Talk on Work Culture

A talk was delivered by the zonal HR manager of HDB financial services, Mr. Prashant Kaul, about work culture on 17th September, 2018. Approximately, 100 students attended to the talk. First of all, he discussed about the meaning of work culture and its components, which include ethics, attitude, work environment, organizational structure, communication base and other approaches. He put forward the point that manpower is the greatest asset in an organization and how work culture can affect their efficiency and empower them. Later on, he discussed about the culture in HDB financing services and that regular training and proper communication are available there for performance appraisal. Also, Informal activities within the company like office celebrations and easily approachable high officials make work culture better. He was very clear about the concepts and engaged the listeners well. After he finished his lecture, a presenter from RMS school, in collaboration with TISS Mumbai, came forward to discuss about the various courses being provided by the institute like Digital Marketing, HR and Banking & Marketing Management. Internships and PG courses are also provided there for professional knowledge and imparting skills. At the end, students were given feedback forms to give their views about the session.
