National Seminar on Social Inclusion and Social Equality through Education

Post Graduate Department of Sociology organized an ICSSR-NW sponsored Seminar on Social Inclusion and Social Equality through Education on 26th March, 2019. More than one hundred faculty members and research scholars from various institutions of the region participated in the Seminar. Mr. Rubinderjit Brar, Director Higher Education, Chandigarh Administration was the chief-guest in the inaugural session. Prof. S.L. Sharma, a renowned social scientist was the keynote speaker. This was followed by a panel discussion in which scholars and academicians deliberated upon the intricacies of education and its role in bringing about social inclusion and establishing social equality. The panelists reflected upon the studies and researches conducted in this field and gave suggestions to bridge the gaps. In the technical session, more than fifty papers were presented on diverse issues.

The focus was on themes related to conceptual and procedural issues; marginalized sections of society; theoretical issues in education as an agent of change; role of government agencies etc. The presentations were very thought provoking and provided an evaluative analysis of the various dimensions related to the question of inclusion and equality. Prof. Sanjay Kaushik, Honorary Director, ICSSR and Director College Development Council, PU Chandigarh was the chief-guest for the valedictory session. Prof. Nandita Singh, Dean International Students, PU Chandigarh delivered the valedictory address.
