International Women's Day

On the occasion of International Women's Day, an Open session was conducted on the 8th March, 2022 by the KalaSrijan. The Best out of Waste Society' in the P. G. Dept. of Fine Arts. About 50 Students of UG and PG classes participated in the activity. Prof Guneeta Chadha talked about the relevance of celebrating Inter National Women Day. It was a lively and inter active discussion session in which the students spoke about the issues, problems being faced by the new generation of women students. Though the issue has many dimensions, the whole group has reached in a consensus that there is still a need to sensitize the public to the problems being faced by women. More facilities need to be provided for working women. To make the event special and impactful the students were also given task to make painting/poster related to the empowerment of women.

Outcome

The Pandemic had very adverse effect on the one to one interaction with the students. Despite the challenges the Kala Srijan society was able to harness the creative abilities of its student members. The Creative poster and painting contribution of students on Woman's day celebration was very enriching experience for the students. The Best out of Waste activity was an inter active and participative event. The students worked in a team and explored the full potential of waste material as a medium of Art.
