Philosophers Meet

It is so rightly said that an institution is created by students moreover the thoughts and views they have, purvey how strong the foundation will be and how it will impact the society. Its easier said than done, but the Department of Philosophy never fails to make an exception, the Department organized a meet and greet on 12th April, 2019 at the Department of Philosophy, PGGCG-11, Chandigarh. And not only was it a meet and greet it was an interactive session where students of all the three years discussed about their views on life, philosophy and how it influences life. Students reviewed how they pitched upon philosophy and not only that, the Head of the Department, Author and Assistant Professor of Philosophy, Dr Ambuj Sharma shared his ideas on life, success and career. All in all, it was a great learning experience. Fifteen students participated in the event.
