

Post Graduate Govt. College for Girls, Sector -11, Chandigarh

EPIPHANY SOCIETY

Session: July 2023- March 2024

S.NO	DATE	ACTIVITY	NO. OF STUDENTS	Page number
1.	2 nd February 2023	Orientation Session cum Board decoration activity	50	1
2.	9-10 th September 2023	Short Story Writing Competition	30	2
3.	8 th November 2023	Photo Booth during Joy of Giving by Hum Hain Society	70	3
4.	5-8 th February 2024	Adjective Story Competition	40	4
5.	28 th February 2024	Dramatic Interpretation	150	5
6.	6 th April 2024	Wordy Brew	220	6

Orientation Session cum Board decoration activity

The Epiphany Society of Department of English conducted an Orientation session cum Board decoration activity on 2nd February 2023. The new students were familiarized with the aim, structure and scope of the society. Students of BA II year initiated the activity mode of the session by taking up Epiphany board decoration activity. Around 50 students participated in the event.

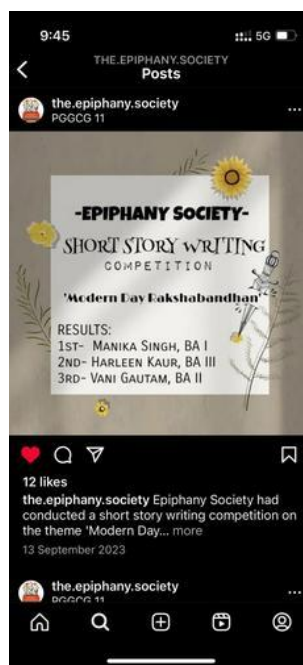

Orientation session

Board decoration by BA II students

Short Story Writing Competition

Epiphany Society, Department of English organized a Short Story Writing Competition on the theme 'Modern Day Rakshabandhan' on 9-10th September 2023. Around 30 participants submitted their entries. These were adjudged by one of the faculty members from Dept. of English and the names of the first three position holders were posted on the society's Instagram page.

Instagram post of short story writing competition results

Photo Booth during Joy of Giving by Hum Hain Society

The Epiphany Society, Department of English, PGGCG-11, Chandigarh participated in the annual event of Hum Hain society, 'Joy of Giving' held on 8th November 2023, by having a unique photo booth. Around 70 students came up enthusiastically to have their photo clicked and contribute to the cause of the event.

Photo Booth

Adjective Story Competition

Epiphany Society, Department of English organized an Adjective Story Writing Competition during 5-8th February 2024 wherein the participants were given a short story with blank spaces to be filled in by them with the adjectives of their choice. 40 students submitted their entries, displaying their fertile imagination and creativity. These were adjudged by one of the faculty members from Department of English. The names of first three position holders were posted on the Instagram page of the society.

Adjective story competition results

Dramatic Interpretation

Epiphany Society, Department of English organized a Dramatic Interpretation program celebrating William Shakespeare on 28th February 2014. The event was titled ‘Bring on the Bard: As You Like It’. the participants were required to pick a speech from any of Shakespeare’s plays and perform it within 2-3 minutes. 26 teams staged their amazing and innovative performance in the auditorium in front of around 150 students and faculty members.

Participants performing Shakespeare

Audience enjoying the performances

Wordy Brew

Wordy Brew, the annual event of Epiphany Society, Department of English was held on 6th April 2024. The venue for this event, the college auditorium teemed with the presence of teachers, participants, volunteers and the cheering audience. Students showcased their analytical, compositional, performative and mnemonic abilities through participating in activities like literary quiz, song translation and performance, poetry writing and recitation, book cover design, palindrome creation, skit etc. The winners were awarded the certificates in recognition of their talent. The event culminated with refreshment for both faculty and student members (more than 220) of the society.

Literary Quiz

Skit performance of 'The Marriage Proposal'