

LITERARY AND DEBATING SOCIETY

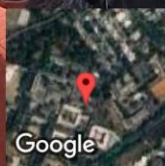

REPORT

DATE- 11th August 2025

Literary and Debating Society of the college organised a multi-lingual Debate Competition under the VIKSIT BHARAT YUVA CONNECT PROGRAMME, a government initiative. The theme of the debate was "EMERGENCY PERIOD IN INDIA" and around 12 teams participated in the competition. Each team presented its arguments both in favour as well as against the motion. The judges for the event were Ms. Gopika Bhardwaj and Dr. Cheena Gambhir. The competition turned out to be an enlightening and brain storming session for the students. Around 200 students attended the event along with the faculty members from the Department of English, Hindi and Punjabi. The event commenced at 11:00 am in the multimedia room and concluded around 1:00 pm. Towards the end of the event, results were announced. First prize was bagged by Vanshika, second price went to Mehak and third prize was secured by Simran. The team prize for the best team was won by Vanshika and Aditi.
