Extension Lecture Report

The Departments of Hindi, Sanskrit and Philosophy of PG Govt. College for Girls, Sector-11, Chandigarh in collaboration with Punjab National Bank and Shuruat Samiti Haryana organised deliberations celebrating World Hindi Diwas on the topic “Literature in protection of nature & impact of climate change on women society” on 11th January, 2025 under the able guidance and support of Prof. (Dr.) Anita Kaushal, Principal, PGGCG-11, Chandigarh.

The chief guest, Dr. Rajesh Prasad, Regional Manager, PNB Chandigarh, and the keynote speaker, Prof. (Dr.) Sudha Singh from the Department of Hindi, Delhi University, were ceremonially welcomed by Principal Prof. (Dr.) Anita Kaushal with bouquets, shawls, and books as tokens of honor. In the inaugural session, Dr. Chandan Lal Gupta provided an elaborate outline of the program. The keynote speaker, Dr. Sudha Singh, delivered her address, emphasizing that feminist logic has become more robust. She elaborated on the journey of women from being subjected to traditional rituals dominated by Patriarchy to becoming well-educated and empowered. Using examples from literary works, she highlighted women's substantial contributions to addressing environmental crises.

Dr. Rajesh Prasad elaborated on the significant role of banking in the economic promotion of the Hindi language and its culture. He stressed the importance of linguistic usage in workplaces and expressed concern over the declining use of the language. He emphasized that serving the language is akin to serving the nation, advocating for a greater sense of national pride through linguistic preservation. More than 120 students and faculty members from all colleges across Chandigarh attended this program. Dr. Ambuj Sharma efficiently conducted the proceedings and Dr. Mohan Lal Jat proposed a vote of thanks.
